02 InPlace

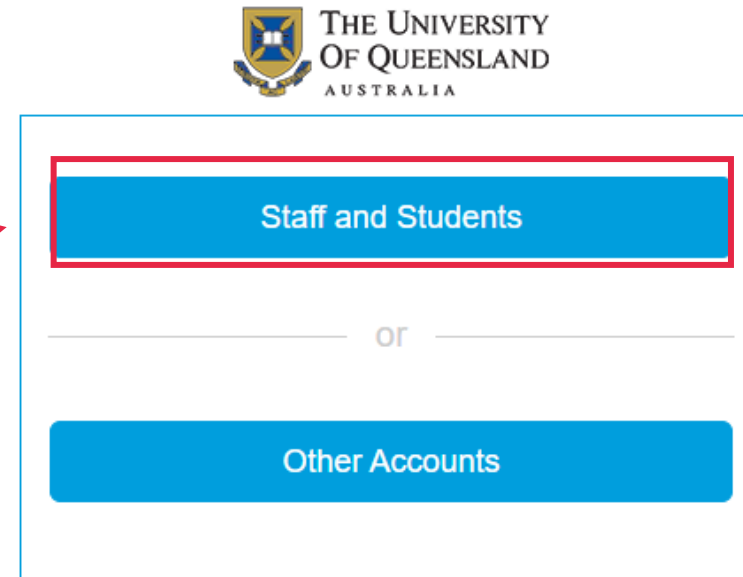

How to find, log in and navigate the placement system, InPlace.

2.1 Logging into InPlace

To preference for your Learning Community and clinical immersion term, you will first need to log into the placement system, InPlace. You can access InPlace via my.UQ or through the below URL:

<https://placements.uq.edu.au/>

Click on the Staff and Students button to log in via 'Single Sign On' (using your UQ student credentials)

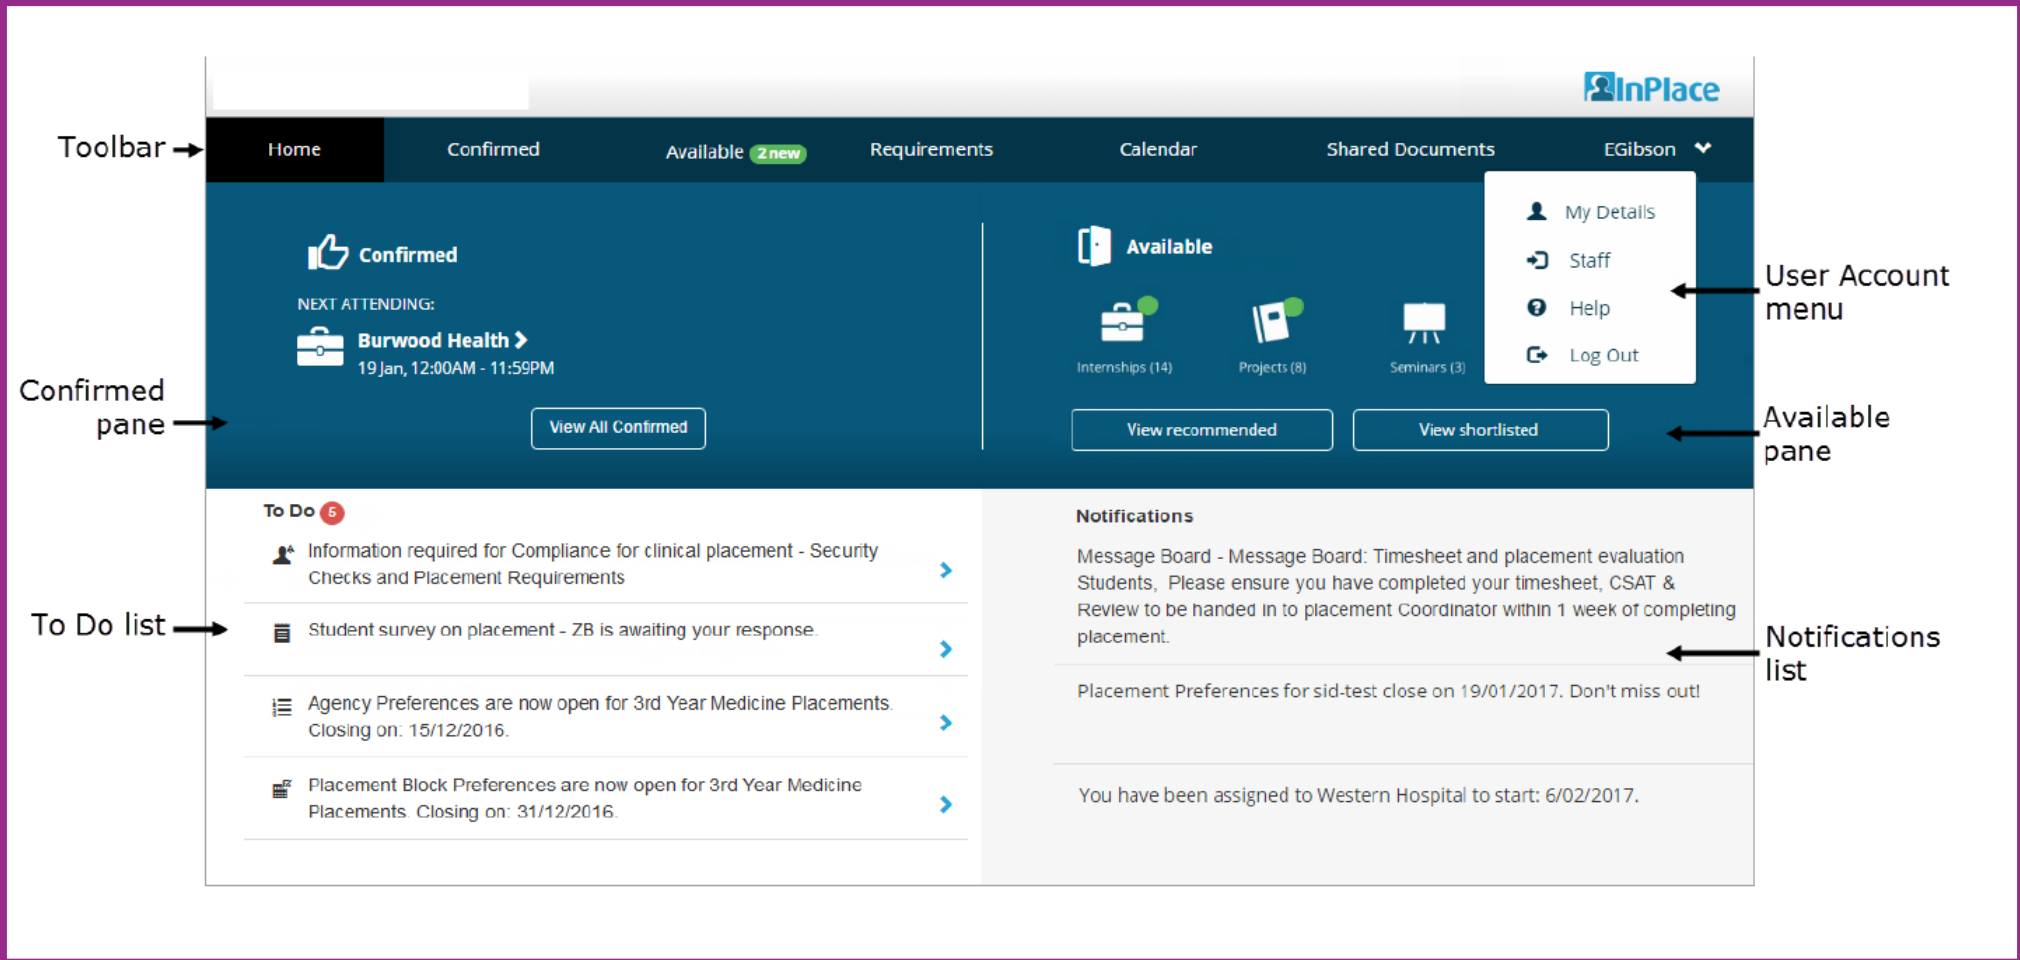

The screenshot shows the login interface for InPlace. At the top is the University of Queensland Australia logo. Below it, there are two blue buttons: 'Staff and Students' and 'Other Accounts'. A red box highlights the 'Staff and Students' button. Between the two buttons is the word 'or' flanked by horizontal lines. At the bottom of the page, there is a link for 'Quantum Information Technology Cookie Policy' and the InPlace logo with the tagline 'Smart Placement Solutions'.

2.2 InPlace Home Screen Navigation

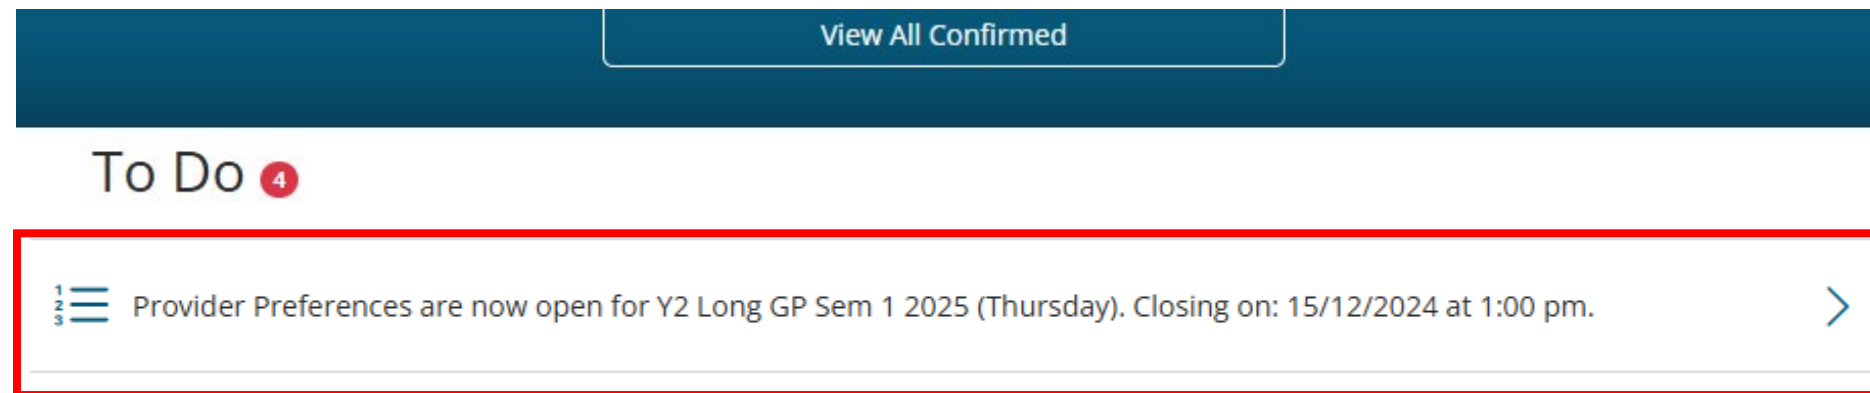

The screenshot displays the InPlace Home Screen interface. The top navigation bar (Toolbar) includes links for Home, Confirmed, Available (with a '2 new' badge), Requirements, Calendar, Shared Documents, and a user profile dropdown for EGibson. The main content area is divided into two primary panes: the Confirmed pane on the left, which shows a 'Confirmed' status and a 'NEXT ATTENDING' section for 'Burwood Health' on 19 Jan, 12:00AM - 11:59PM, with a 'View All Confirmed' button; and the Available pane on the right, which shows 'Available' status with sub-sections for Internships (14), Projects (8), and Seminars (3), along with 'View recommended' and 'View shortlisted' buttons. A 'User Account menu' is open, showing options for My Details, Staff, Help, and Log Out. Below the main panes, there is a 'To Do list' with six items, including 'Information required for Compliance for clinical placement - Security Checks and Placement Requirements' and 'Student survey on placement - ZB is awaiting your response'. A 'Notifications list' is also present, containing messages such as 'Message Board - Message Board: Timesheet and placement evaluation Students...' and 'Placement Preferences for sid-test close on 19/01/2017. Don't miss out!'. Annotations with arrows point to the Toolbar, Confirmed pane, To Do list, User Account menu, Available pane, and Notifications list.

03 Preferencing

How to preference in InPlace.

3.1 Preferencing – where to find it

You can find the preference links in the InPlace 'To Do' list at the bottom left corner of the home screen once preferencing is open. An example showing a link to Y2 Longitudinal General Practice preferencing is below.

Please ensure you select the correct link for your preferencing

Note!

Students may see additional links in their 'To Do' list, such as those for Unpaid Work Experience. Ensure you select the correct link for preferencing, as these other links relate to different opportunities.
